Helping Hands Food Basket

Please continue to bring food for the Helping Hands Food Basket. Bulk staples and other non-perishables are appreciated and delivered weekly by Edith LaVonne.

July 12 Women Composers in Our Hymnal

David Hensley will present some information about some of the women composers whose work appears in our hymnal dating all the way back to the 11th century. This will include Hildegard of Bingen, Nannerl Mozart, Fanny Mendelssohn-Hensel as well as 20th century women composers. Professor Hensley will also share some insights from one of the members of the editorial committee who worked on determining which songs would be included in our current hymnal.

July 26 Dealing with the "Big Uglies"

This talk is about guiding people with health issues through the process of taking charge of their health at the cellular level. They not only slow down their progress toward those "big uglies" (cancer, heart disease, diabetes, obesity, etc.) but some are able to stop it altogether as they train their body to function in a more joyful, energetic, and pain-free manner.

Saturday July 25 - Memorial for Al Telesford

All members and friends of Betty and Al Telesford are invited to a memorial for Al which will be held at the UU Fellowship at 2:00 p.m. on July 25, 2015. The Telesford family wishes to provide all the necessities for the event so your presence is all that is requested.

This Unitarian Universalist community welcomes and celebrates the presence and participation of people who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and/or queer.

As a Unitarian Universalist congregation, we affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
