January 28 My Favorite Douglasses

Terry will read from the works of both mathematician Douglas Hofstadter and humorist Douglas Adams. Douglas Hofstadter is best known for his Pulitzer Prize winning works in metalogic as well as amusing writings on the strange world of self-reference and its philosophical implications. Douglas Adam, on the other hand, is the well-known author of the Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy as well as other works involving sophisticated humor.

Hymn 46

Reading 543

As a Unitarian Universalist congregation, we affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
